Hale et al v. State Farm Mutual Insurance Company

Don Barrett was lead class counsel and lead trial attorney for the plaintiffs in a national class action against State Farm Mutual Insurance Company in Illinois, concerning State Farm's use of imitation crash parts in auto repair. After a seven-week trial ending in October of 1999, the jury awarded a verdict of $456 million and an additional $600 million in punitive damages was awarded by the trial judge. This was the largest verdict ever rendered in the State of Illinois and the largest against any insurance company in the United States. This verdict was subsequently affirmed by a unanimous Illinois Court of Appeals, and reversed by the Illinois Supreme Court. From the ashes of that case arose Hale et al v. State Farm Mutual Insurance Company, filed in the Southern District of Illinois, which alleged that State Farm engineered the election of an Illinois Supreme Court justice, then lied about its election activities, to avoid a recusal of that justice from the panel deciding the Avery v. State Farm appeal. State Farm's motion to dismiss was denied and class certification was granted, and State Farm had three petitions denied in the Seventh Circuit. On September 13, 2018, after the trial jury was empaneled, and over 21 years after the original litigation began, Judge Herndon granted final approval to a settlement with State Farm for $250 million.

In Re Neurontin Marketing and Sales Practices Litigation

On December 16, 2004, Don Barrett was appointed one of six members of the Class Plaintiffs' Steering Committee by U.S. District Judge Patti B. Saris of the District of Massachusetts. In that MDL, the case of an individual plaintiff (Kaiser Foundation Health Plan) against the defendant Pfizer, Inc., was tried over a five-week period in February and March of 2010 in Boston. That trial resulted in a jury verdict for plaintiff on its civil RICO claim in the amount of $47.34 million, which was trebled under the RICO statute. This is believed to be the first civil RICO verdict ever rendered against a major pharmaceutical company. This verdict was affirmed by the 1st Circuit Court of Appeals and has been paid in full. The accompanying class action, after ten years of litigation and three denials of class certification, was settled in May of 2014 for $325 million. Final approval of this settlement was granted by Judge Saris in October 2014.

Holman v. Noble Energy, Inc.

Barrett Law Group was co-lead class counsel on behalf of royalty owners in the Greater Wattenberg natural gas field in Colorado. This suit, which complained of systematic under-payments of royalties by a major natural gas producer, resulted in a $98 million settlement for the class. This settlement received final approval by the Colorado court on June 11, 2007. Since that time, we have achieved class settlement in four similar cases, most recently in the federal district court in Denver on October 29, 2010. These five cases have produced settlements exceeding $150 million; Barrett Law Group was also co-lead counsel in several similar cases currently pending in the Western District of Virginia. In the first of these cases, a settlement of $3.4 million, which recovered over 95% of all compensatory damages claimed by the plaintiff class, received final approval by the District Court on October 4, 2011. Certain Underwriters at Lloyds*, resulting in a verdict on February 24, 2011, amounting to $1,832,804. On December 21, 2011, the Penthouse Court entered final judgment in the case, adding attorneys' fees, costs, and interest in the amount of $3,111,533, bringing the total award to $4,944,135.

Likewise, Don represented the Attorneys General of New York, Louisiana, Arizona, Washington, Indiana, Alaska, Idaho, Oregon, Rhode Island, Ohio, Vermont, Illinois, and the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico in their successful litigation against the tobacco industry. Don was one of three plaintiffs' attorneys who negotiated the landmark settlement with Liggett Group announced in March of 1996, as well as one of the lead attorneys in the historic settlement agreement entered into by twenty-two Attorneys General with Liggett Group on March 20, 1997. Don's tobacco litigation experiences have been chronicled in various national publications, including the ABA Journal, The New York Times, The American Lawyers, The Wall Street Journal, and The Washington Post. Two books concerning tobacco litigation also featured Don: Cornered: Big Tobacco at the Bar of Justice, by Peter Pringle (Henry Holt and Company, New York City, 1998); and The People vs. Big Tobacco, by Carrick Mollencamp, et al (Bloomberg Press, Princeton, N.J., 1998), and his experiences in tobacco litigation are the primary focus of another book, Assuming the Risk, by Michael Orey (Little, Brown & Co., New York City, September, 1999). In January 2019, the State of Mississippi retained our firm to sue the U.S. Corps of Engineers for taking thousands of acres of its land for a floodway along the Mississippi River, without paying for it. Suit has been filed in the U.S. Court of Federal Claims. Since then, private landowners along the lower Mississippi, owning approximately 500,000 acres in Arkansas, Louisiana and Mississippi, have retained our firm to sue the Corps for the same reason. We have survived the defendant's motion to dismiss, and the Court has opened discovery and entered a fair scheduling order on May 14, 2020, with a trial target of early fall of 2021.

These cases resulted in multi-million-dollar settlements in twelve of these states, but only in the making of some bad law in the thirteenth state (Louisiana), on a remand issue that plaintiffs lost in a tie vote (4-4) before the U.S. Supreme Court in March of 2000.
